

PETER STONE BROWN

March 13, 2008

Hi Jon,

Sorry for the delay. Here's the album. It was recorded quite a while ago in Austin at Bismeaux Studios, which are owned by Ray Benson, (Asleep At The Wheel) who I went to school with centuries ago.

It was produced and engineered by someone you may possibly have known at some point in Woodstock, Frank Campbell, who at the time was married to Cindy Cashdollar.

All the musicians were from or based in Austin, except the drummer, who was from my band at the time.
